

Omega Youth Leadership Academy's Larry Ross receives The 2019 Community Assist Award

Phoenix AZ. February 26th, 2020. Prior to the Phoenix Suns and Los Angeles Clippers basketball game, Bro. Larry Ross, the Executive Director and Founder of the Omega Youth Leadership Academy was presented with the 2019 Community Assist Award for OYLA's outstanding and dedicated community work with youth of all scholastic backgrounds.

Bro. Ross accepted the award on behalf of the OYLA Board, students, mentors, staff, parents community partners and the Phi Iota Chapter of Omega Psi Phi Fraternity, Inc., who play key roles in all of the mentoring, academic, developmental, recreational and Fatherhood Initiative activities that compose OYLA's curriculum.

Bro. Ross with the Executive Director of the Suns Charities, Sarah Krahenbul and Suns player Mikal Bridges.